AMEND Senate Joint Resolution No. 596*

by deleting the second resolving clause of the introduced resolution in its entirety and substituting instead the following language:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all prescribers and pharmacists should remain aware of the potential public safety and health care implications that generic or therapeutic substitution of drugs and drug products may have on persons with epilepsy. Therefore, prescribers and pharmacists should notify the patient whenever prescribing or dispensing a drug or drug product, that generic or therapeutic substitution, as provided under Tennessee law, may cause side effects and have consequences for the patient.
